CBM Holds Faculty and Student Research Forum

Contributed by Dr. Elizabeth Ramos

The College of Business and Management held a Faculty and Student Research Forum on 31 March 2017 with the theme, CBM's Best Research Papers 2017.

The activity aimed to a) provide a venue for the completed researches of CBM faculty; b) showcase CBM's best undergraduate feasibility studies and research projects through oral presentations; c) highlight the spectrum of research studies of CBM faculty and students; d) enthuse the students to do research studies geared toward innovation; and e) share innovative approaches in conducting research.

The forum started with a plenary session in the 2F HRMTC at 2:00 P.M. with Dr. Elizabeth Ramos, Dr. Brian Bantugan, and Prof. Angelica Gonzales giving the welcome remarks, inspirational message, and perspective setting, respectively. Thereafter, concurrent sessions featuring the best research projects of faculty and students of Tourism Management (2F HRMTC), Hotel and Restaurant Management (Rm 217), Business Management and Entrepreneurship (Rm 216), Computer Science and Information Technology (Rm 215), and Accountancy and Finance Management Accounting (Rm 214) were held. The faculty and students found the activity fruitful and productive.

Charo Santos-Concio Wins Acting Award in 17th Canary Islands Film Festival

Charo Santos-Concio (St. Paul Manila alumna, AB-CA 1976) was given the Special Mention honor in acting at the 17th Las Palmas de Gran Canaria, held in the Canary Islands for outstanding performance in her comeback film, Ang Babaeng Humayo.

"This piece of good news is always welcome! I am grateful to have been considered worthy of a special mention," the Kapamilya lady executive said.

She recounted that her director, Lav Diaz, had forwarded an e-mail to her. "The festival head said that the jury was torn, so they made an exception for the first time in the acting category and decided to give this special recognition." She asserted: "My thanks to the jury and again thanks to Direk Lav for the trust!"
