Each program was represented by three members. The winning team was composed of Samantha Francesca Deiparine, Krisna Mae Cantos, and Christine Bichel, who was named as one of the three best speakers, together with Edmund Ralph Cuajao of the TEP and Jyd Parreño of BSN.

Ahngelica Alcantara and Danica Villarey were Cuajao's team mates while Parreño was joined by Katrina Katya Lingatong and Julia Rubio.

Dr. Gerardo Guiuan, Area Coordinator-Philosophy, said in his opening remarks that the event aims to discover possible representatives of St. Paul University (SPU) Manila in the coming South Manila Educational Consortium Ethics Bowl Competition.

Some of the issues that were tackled in the competition were religion, terrorism, economics, and environment. Judges were Ms. Niña Endozo, Language Coordinator; Mr. Jonathan Tupaz, Religious Education Faculty; and Mr. Marvin Einstein Mejaro, former Philosophy teacher of SPU Manila.
