From The Paulinian

Celebrating its 104th foundation year, St. Paul University Manila will observe University Week 2016 with a roster of activities for the whole Paulinian community, with the theme “SPU Manila @104: Alive in the Word, Celebrating God’s Love, Mercy, and Compassion,” on 25-27 January 2016.

The three-day celebration will start with the Opening Mass in the Fleur-de-lis Theater on 25 January, followed by the service awards program, also in the theater, and the opening of different college booths in the quadrangle. Highlights of the first day of the celebration will be Paulinian Popstar, Voiceline, Paulinian Banchetto, and Paulinian Feast.

The second day will feature the annual Cheer Dance Competition, the Paulinian Quiz Bee, and Kantiwayan, the faculty variety show.

On 27 January, health activities will be held: a zumba session in the morning, followed by bloodletting activity and first aid training. Slam Jam and Concert for a Cause will highlight the third day.

The championship games and minor games of the Father Louis Chauvet Cup (FLCC) will be held simultaneously during the three days. Capping the FLCC will be the awarding ceremony on 27 January.
The Annual General Alumni Homecoming will be held on 31 January 2016. Mass will be at 3:00 P.M., followed by dinner and fellowship and a program in the University Quadrangle.

HOMECOMING PROGRAM BARED

As mentioned above, the Annual General Alumni Homecoming will be held on 31 January 2016. The program of activities in the homecoming follows:
