SPU Manila Awarded Institutional Accreditation

The Federation of Accrediting Agencies of the Philippines (FAAP) has awarded SPU Manila Institutional Accreditation Status.

The award was given to the University's "for its long tradition of exemplary accomplishments in the areas of instruction, research, community service, and high performance of its graduates in licensure examinations; for the laudable practices leading to internal efficiency and external productivity; for its meritorious record of excellence as evidenced by the high level of program accreditation and effective internal quality assurance mechanisms."

The status is effective until November 2018.

The award was signed by the FAAP President, Dr. Betsy Joy B. Tan, Dr. Jaime M. Buzar and other Board Members of the association.

St. Paul Global Foundation slates benefit dinner-dance

The St. Paul Global Foundation will have a benefit dinner-dance, "A Night to Remember," at 7:00 P.M., 23 May 2015 in the Sheraton Pentagon City Hotel, in Arlington, Virginia. The event will be held for the benefit of the SPC Sisters in the Vigil House.

A highlight of the activity will be the drawing of winning raffle tickets, some of which were bought by St. Paul Manila High School 1965 in support of the old and sick Sisters.

The core committee for the event has been having meetings and dance rehearsals for several months to ensure its success. The foundation's members come from St. Paul schools all over the Philippines.

The photos show the dinner-dance ticket, a committee meeting on 14 April 2015 in Joy Karaan's house, and a tote that will be sold during the event.
