

THESIS FINAL DEFENSE HRM 4TH YEAR STUDENTS

Contributed by Dr. Mary Grace Leongson and Jamleon Javier

St. Paul University Manila, a Paulinian institution run by the Sisters of St. Paul of Chartres, teach and mold students to become research oriented, knowledgeable, professional, and Christ-centered Paulinians. The University requires every student to take the Methods of Research course, which helps the students in writing research papers, discovering and exploring different branches and aspects of the hospitality industry.

February 29, 2016 was the date of the Final Oral Defense of the Hotel and Restaurant Management 4th year students, under the guidance of their professor, Dr. Mary Grace Leongson. The research studies presented the phenomena and gaps on different aspects of the restaurant and food and beverage industry, such as food waste management practices, restaurant leadership, food innovation and development, catering aspects, food destination marketing and advertisement, etc.

The studies were presented and discussed outstandingly by the HRM students. Other selected researches have been given an outstanding acknowledgment and invited for publishing and for the college research presentation. At the end of the day, all the researchers and their researches became successful with the help and guidance of their families, classmates, professors, and advisers.

CARITAS CHRISTI URGET NOS! Now and Forever.

Presidential Tribute and Book Launch:
Statesman and Survivor Elpidio Quirino, 6th President of the Philippines
Contributed by Betty Ann Besa-Quirino (AB 1977)

A tribute to The Life and Times of Elpidio Quirino: From Guro to Pangulo, President of the Philippines (1948 to 1953) was held in the Philippine Consulate General in New York recently in partnership with the President Elpidio Quirino Foundation on the occasion of the year-long commemoration of President Quirino's 125th birth anniversary and 60th death anniversary on February 29, 2016.

Honorable Consul General, Mario Lopez de Leon Jr., led the tribute and welcomed the Quirino family members who live in the USA. Heading the Quirino family were Elpidio Pineda Quirino and Elizabeth Ann Besa-Quirino, both on the Board of Advisers of the Quirino Foundation.

This event was also the launch of the history book, Statesman and Survivor Elpidio Quirino, 6th President of the Philippines, co-authored by Elizabeth Ann Quirino (SPCM-CA'77), Elpidio Pineda Quirino, and Constante G. Quirino; book design by Tim Quirino. The book contains 125 historical quotes of inspiration, curated from President Quirino's memoirs, speeches, and biographies. The timeless messages and pearls of wisdom are mini instructional manuals for the spirit and the soul.

The book contains photos from the Quirino family albums, messages from the late First Daughter Victoria Quirino-Delgado and the late Judge Antonio Quirino, plus an epilogue from wellness and health celebrity, Cory R. Quirino.

Elizabeth Ann and Elpidio Pineda Quirino are donating all profits of this book to the Pres. Elpidio Quirino Foundation, which supports advocacies for public school teachers and education. The book is sold worldwide on www.Amazon.com.

Elizabeth Ann Quirino (SPCM Communication Arts 77) held her book launch at the Phil. Consulate General NY. Her history book, Statesman and Survivor Elpidio Quirino, 6th President of the Philippines, (www.Amazon.com), was co-authored with her husband, Elpidio Pineda Quirino and son, Constante G. Quirino.
