PAULINIAN NAMED PAPAL AWARDEE

Atty. Pilar Nenuca Almira, High School 1970, BSC 1974 has been named a Papal Awardee. She will receive the award "Pro Ecclesia et Pontifica," on 27 May 2015. This is the highest award given by the Pope to a layman.

The awardee has a long record of professional and personal achievements, including her present position as President and CEO of Cardinal Santos Medical Center. She is a member of the Board of Trustees of the St. Paul Manila Alumni Foundation, Inc. (SPMAFI) and Chairman of the Paulinian First Program, which gives financial assistance to needy alumni.

Pilar has also been active in the Correctional Program of the SPMAFI and Paulinian First. Aside from being a regular donor, she has facilitated the sick inmates' procedures in Cardinal Santos Medical Center. She is one of the moving forces of her high school batch, actively participating in social gatherings, as well as religious activities like recollections and pilgrimages.

The tarp below was put up by the parish of her hometown, which is surely very proud of her.
