ST. PAUL MANILA ALUMNA HONORED BY LA UNION

Contributed by Fran Asiaten

The City of San Fernando, La Union recently honored men and women who have made exemplary contributions to the province of La Union here and abroad during the past 20 years.

The event was the 20th Pagwadan Awards. Among the awardees was our very own musician from Bangar, La Union—Imelda Asiaten—who received such an award in 2007 as an International Concert Pianist based in Germany. Congratulations to all 20th Pagwadan Awardees!

Imelda Asiaten is our very own music graduate, a student of Stella Goldenberg-Brimo, who was the accompanist of the famous St. Paul College Glee Club in the 60's. She was awarded the DAAD scholarship for further studies in Hannover, Germany. From then on, she got other scholarships from different countries, after which she remained based in Germany until she retired in 2010. Since she retired in the Philippines, Imelda has given benefit concerts for schools, church and other projects in La Union under the sponsorship of Mary Jane C. Ortega, the former mayor of San Fernando, La Union, to bring classical music to the people of the province.
