ADMINISTRATORS' ACHIEVEMENTS

DISSERTATION OF DR. POPANES RECEIVES SECOND AWARD

The dissertation of Dr. Joanne O. Popanes, Director, Human Resource Services, "Lived Experiences of Abused and Repatriated Filipino Migrant Domestic Workers in the Middle East: A Feminist Phenomenological Perspective," won the third place for Outstanding Doctoral Dissertation given by the Psychological Association of the Philippines (PAP). The award was given during the 55th PAP Convention held on 20-22 September 2018 in the Philippine International Convention Center.

This is, in fact, the second recognition given to the dissertation, which got second place in the Outstanding Graduate Dissertation Award in the Social Sciences given by the Ateneo de Manila University. The award was presented during the 1st SOSS Research Conference held by the university.

AND THE SAGA CONTINUES...

An alumna based in New York, Neneng Llagas-Cruz (High School 1965), recently posted this on her Facebook page:

If you're in Manhattan and can't think of a better way to spend your day, go watch Meaningful Conversation. You'll love every minute being part of this conversation. On top of that, you'll meet my son Petro.

(Petro is the young man top right in the photo.)
