THE WORLD IN SPOONFULS

On 26 January 2019, SPU Manila opened an exhibit of a collection of rare spoons donated to the university by Ms. Rachel Joven, an alumna of Rosary College, Vigan.

The event started with cocktails at 3:30 P.M., followed by a simple program:

Doxology	SPU Manila Chorale
Philippine National Anthem	led by the Chorale
Welcome Remarks	Sr. Evangeline Anastacio, SPC President, SPU Manila
Song numbers	SPU Manila Chorale
Introduction to the Exhibit	Sr. Flordeliza Deza, SPC Curator, SPU Manila Museum and Archives
Master of Ceremonies	Mrs. Marionette Martinez

After the program, Sr. Evangeline and Sr. Flor cut the ribbon and opened the exhibit.

The event ended with dinner in the 3rd Floor Ballroom of the HRMTC, during which the guests were treated to musical numbers by the Chorale and the Guitar Ensemble.

Special thanks to Mr. Oliver Rodriguez and the CPMA for the musical entertainment and to Mr. Roel Sapiendo and the Paulinian Usherettes.

The week ended with the Annual Alumni Homecoming on 27 January 2019. Coverage of the event will be in next week's issue.
