

SPU MANILA FACULTY AND STUDENT PARTICIPATE IN 27TH ASEACCU CONFERENCE

The SPU Manila Planning and Quality Assurance Manager, Ms. Maridel Negradas, and a BS in Tourism Management student, Ms. Francesca Marie Dychangco, attended the 27th Association of Southeast and East Asian Catholic Colleges and Universities (ASEACCU) Annual Conference, held on 19-22 August 2019 in Sogang University, Seoul, Korea.

The theme of this year's conference was "Reconciliation and the Situation in the East Asian Region."

The conference included an Internationalization Program, which gave the participants the opportunity to explore possibilities of collaboration and foster internationalization initiatives among the ASEACCU member institutions.

Moreover, simultaneous conferences were held for faculty and students.

Research studies on reconciliation were presented and a series of lectures on Gender Equality and Becoming a 21st Century Global Citizen were conducted in the said conferences.

The next conference will be held on 25-29 August 2020 in Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

A panoramic photo of conference organizers and delegates

New Students and Parents Orientation

An orientation program for new students and their parents was held at 7:30 A.M. to 12:00 NN, 31 August 2019 in the 2nd Floor Ballroom of the HRM Training Center.

The event was organized by the Student Services Division, in coordination with the Academic Services. The participants were new students from the college department and their parents. The objective of the event was to acquaint the participants on the vision and mission of the university, as well as its policies, educational objectives, and services rendered to the student.

The activity met the highest expectations of its participants. The orientation included talks on the Spirituality of Parenting, Mental Health Awareness, Drug Orientation, and relevant information on the Data Privacy Act. The support services were presented and some policies on academic, finance, and student discipline were also shared with the participants. The activity garnered an excellent rating of 3.46 from the participants.

Sr. Evangeline Anastacio, SPC gave her message about the empowering qualities of the University and the core values being instilled in every Paulinian.

Sr. Alegria Avellaneda, SPC presented the members of the management team.

Mr. AJ Agojo and Ms. Rosalle Dizon emceed the program.

Fr. Norman Peña, SSP discussed the Spirituality of Parenting and the impact of values parents teach their children.

Ms. Techie Duran-Dy from the Center for Family Ministries shared her knowledge on mental health, depression, and risk of suicide.

Dr. Bong Guian discussed the University's policy on data privacy.

Dr. Marichen Dychangco updated the audience on the academic services and answered queries of parents on academics.

Ms. Elmgay Valeriano discussed support services given to the students by the Student Services Division. She also talked on salient points regarding student discipline.

CONDOLENCES

The Paulinian Family condoles with the family of Patria Gualberto (BSC 1967) who passed away recently.

