

PROUD TO BE A PAULINIAN

“
In St. Paul University Manila, education is not just academic; it is grounded with compassion for others, social responsibility, and spirituality. Shaping character is as important as academic excellence. And for that, I am very proud to be a Paulinian. How they molded us and prepared us for the real world really equipped me to value excellence in everything that I do... encouraged me to always be of service to others.... and inspired me to be a good citizen of the world. I will be forever grateful!”
