

FEATURING THE COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Last week, we featured graduates of our College of Nursing in the late 60's and early 70's who are making a difference in their chosen profession and in related advocacies. Today, we feature graduates of the College of Arts and Sciences from a different time, the 2000s.

St. Paul Manila did have graduates in the 60's and 70's who have made waves in the fields of art and culture, music, television, and theatre: to name a few, Cecile Guidote-Alvarez, founder of PETA; Baby Barredo (+), co-founder of Repertory Philippines; Charo Santos-Concio, former ABS-CBN President, singers Celeste Legaspi, Noemi Manikan, actress Sherry Lara. These younger alumnae we are featuring today are also making a difference in the field of communication, contributing to the advocacies of the Church and civil society, shaping the ideals of the youth, and serving the school through the Paulinian EDGE program.

Michelle Santo Tomas

Michelle is a painter and a sought-after events host. One of her latest hosting stints was for Days 2 and 3 of the Philippine Conference of the New Evangelization Year 8 with the theme, "Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission." The conference was a collaboration project with Pontifical Mission Societies Philippines, TV Maria, and RCAM-Commission on Mission.

Michelle shares: "Super blessed to be in the same zoom listening to a very perceptive keynote address, live, by 'the' Bishop Pablo Virgilio David, DD. ❤️ Thank you TV Maria for the direction, and OPNE - Office for the Promotion of the New Evangelization for the opportunity to use this talent for the Church!"

Jessey Anne Guiam

Radio DJ, social media personality, YouTuber, and musician also known by the nickname Raqi Terra, Jessey Anne first gained popularity working as a DJ for 90.7 Love Radio-Manila and later transformed into an international social media star and influencer. On her personal RaqiTerra Facebook account, she has gained over 1.3 million followers.

The latest feather in Jessey's cap is her being a nominee for Radio DJ of the Year, Lionhearty RAWR Awards.

Frida Nepomuceno

Though she is the daughter of famous impersonator, Willie Nepomuceno, Frida is holding her own as an events host and media influencer. She has been very gracious in helping SPU Manila in the Paulinian Edge program, Finally Fridays.

Together with Jessey Guiam, she also participated in this year's Teachers Day celebration, about which Ms. Lalaine Vitug-Mallari wrote: "Thank you so much to Ms. Frida Nepomuceno, our AB alumna, for indulging us with her impersonations of Miss Krissy and Sen. Grace Po (Poe). Thank you for making our Teachers Day virtual celebration truly wonderful. We truly appreciate your video messages for our College, Senior High School, and Graduate School faculty."

FROM PAULINIAN EDGE 365

CLASS ON GRAPHIC DESIGN

GRAPHIC DESIGN is another cutting-edge and innovative offering under the Creative Life Skills Certificate Series 1 of the Paulinian Edge 365!

... AND FINALLY FRIDAY

On October 15, 2021, Finally Friday offered another heart-warming, fun talk, this time about vocations.

Featured guests were Fr. Gerome Hernandez, MSP; Sr. Donnalyn Morta, SPC; and our very own University President, Sr. Ma. Evangelina Anastacio, SPC. Regular hosts—Dr. Brian Bantugan, Dr. Amelia Butial, and Prof. Judith Alderete—moderated the session.
