

IN THESE PANDEMIC TIMES...

IT'S STILL TIME TO REMEMBER

Sr. Ma. Evangeline, SPC, University President, writes:

It has been almost a year since Sr. Maria Anunciata Sta. Ana, SPC peacefully went home to our Heavenly Father's embrace. Join the St. Paul University Manila community in this Novena Prayer beginning July 30 until August 7, followed by the Holy Mass on August 8 in celebration of the 1st Death Anniversary of our dear Sr. Maria Anunciata.

Today, August 2, is the birthday of Sr. Maria Anunciata.

It is also the birthday of Sr. Mary Cyril Corpus, SPC, former President of St. Paul Manila, who passed away this year.

The picture on the left was taken in the Vigil House on Sr. Cyril's last birthday before the pandemic. Sister is seated at the center.

Heads up, Paulinians!

Featuring our three-year curriculum programs: Communication and English Programs under the College of Arts and Sciences! We offer three courses: (1) AB Communication, (2) AB Visual Design Communication, and (3) AB English Language.

The Communication and English Programs of St. Paul University Manila harness their students to become great leaders in the industry. With the global pandemic, communication skills are needed without a doubt across all industries. In this age of social media, communication is the key to sharing ideas, thoughts, and opinions.

Paulinians are great communicators and they inspire people. They have a better understanding of what affects people and society at large. Paulinians are known to be leaders in the industry of Mass Media and Communication.

Heads up, Paulinians!

Featuring our Phd. in Communication Design and Social Innovation Program under the College of Arts and Sciences!

A crucial aspect of leadership lies in field of Communication. This program frames learners' understanding of communication as a complex reality. Communication renders any culture and its constituents to process complex realities, as well. It anchors on the understanding of communication theories through the lens of philosophical and ethical discourse. It covers the principles governing effective knowledge management in the age of digital communication, tools, and processes.

SPU Manila now offers

PHD IN COMMUNICATION DESIGN AND SOCIAL INNOVATION PROGRAM

This program is designed for independent learners only. Synchronous meetings are provided to enable a student to establish a relationship with the faculty-in-charge of the course and ask questions related to the content and fulfillment of the requirements of the course.

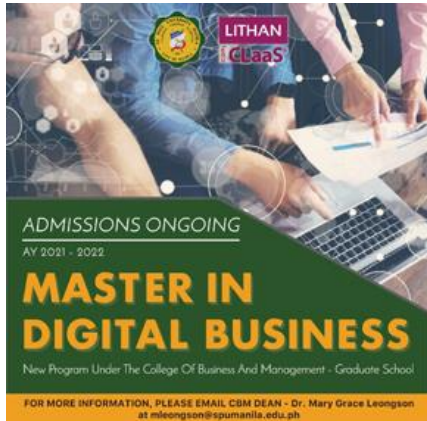

This is also outcomes-based learning-inspired with an emphasis on research projects since the learner is expected to learn the skills for research needed in dissertation writing. The faculty serves a learning designer and facilitator of knowledge exchange pertinent and related to the course.

Embedded in this program is gamification. Students must apply gamification principles to enhance community engagement and intensify participation in the design of community-oriented technologies and products. At the end of the program, students must propose, apply, and test innovative solutions in real community problems.
