SPU MANILA JOINS FIGHT AGAINST CORRUPTION

The Paulinian Community—students, faculty, staff, and SPC Sisters joined the "Bahain ang Luneta" Protest on September 21, 2025.

The protest was a call for accountability with the saying "Never Again. Never Forget" as a symbolic cry, to condemn corruption, prejudice, and the injustices of the Philippine Government.

Some Sisters, teachers, staff and students then proceeded to EDSA People Monument to join the other rally there.

All for the love of God, our country, and our fellow Filipinos, especially the poor.

In FAITH, LOVE, and HOPE, they stood together, standing strong for truth, justice, and a better tomorrow.

St. Paul University Manila proudly joined the Trillion March at the People Power Monument, EDSA to raise their voices for transparency and accountability.

Earlier…

The Paulinian community of St. Paul University Manila gathered in prayer and reflection as a testimony of faith and courage in the face of corruption. Through the Holy Rosary, meaningful reflections, student voices, and a talk on Catholic Social Teachings, SPUM community renewed its commitment to truth, justice, and integrity.

The gathering ended with a symbolic candle-lighting along Pedro Gil Street, a sign that Paulinians choose to be bearers of light and hope against the darkness of corruption and dishonesty.

With Christ as our guide, we stand firm: corruption has no place in a just and moral society.

The SPU Manila Statement…

CALL TO ACTION AGAINST CORRUPTION

Dear Paulinian Family,

As a member of ONE TAFT—an alliance of student councils and administrators of schools along Taft Avenue united in addressing local and national issues—St. Paul University Manila joins in raising its voice against the corruption that continues to burden our nation. The recent revelations on the misuse of public funds for flood-control projects reveal not only scandals of stolen money but, more gravely, tragedies of human suffering. Workers, students, and families are left vulnerableto floods and poverty because of greed and negligence.

Faithful to our mission as a Catholic and Paulinian institution, we are called to stand for truth, justice, and integrity. In solidarity with the Filipino people, we cannot remain silent in the face of systemic corruption.

We, therefore, urge all members of the Paulinian Family—administrators, faculty, staff, and students— to take part in the Mass Actions Against Corruption on Sunday, September 21:

- 9:00 AM at the Luneta
- 2:00 PM on EDSA

Let us, as one community, give witness to our commitment to honesty and good governance. May our participation be an expression of our faith in action, our unity with the poor and the suffering, and our hope for a just and accountable society.

Together, let us stand firm: No to corruption! Yes to justice, truth, integrity, and accountability!

In solidarity,
The Administration
St. Paul University Manila
